

God of Carnage

A play by Yasmina Reza

Translated by Christopher Hampton

Directed by Sandra Provost

What happens when two sets of parents meet up to deal with the unruly behavior of their children?

God of Carnage is a darkly comedic play where two sets of parents meet to resolve a playground fight between their sons, but the discussion rapidly devolves into a chaotic battle of wits, revealing the thin veneer of civility and exposing primal human nature. The play brilliantly satirizes modern parenting and social conventions through biting dialogue and escalating absurdity. This internationally acclaimed, Tony and Olivier Award-winning play is a witty, clever and thought-provoking comedy of manners...without the manners.

"I found myself delighted by Yasmina Reza's incisive observation, her acerbic wit and her shrewd humour...."

– The Times

"Uproarious farce." – The Stage

"Slick and punchy." – Time Out
